The Instant Numerologist Norman Shine, Felix Lyle

Discover the fascinating hidden information about your character and destiny contained in the numbers in your name in your birth date instantly! Authors Norman Shine and Felix Lyle have created a numerology program that is a radical departure from any other system. Although they remain faithful to the basic numerological principles formulated by the classical Greek mathematician and philosopher Pythagoras over 2,500 years ago, they approach the question of how to use numbers to assess character and the future from a completely new perspective of the relationship of karma and fate. Includes complete step-by-step instructions on how to create a character profile out of all the disparate numerological omens and how to construct a name diagram to show the interaction between individual letter-equivalent numbers and the particular kind of energy that each represents. 176 page book and CD-ROM.
