Grandparenting in a Changing World

Eda J. LeShan

Grandparenting in a Changing World Eda J. LeShan

The author explores the roles of grandparents at a time when they are needed more than ever before. With her trademark humor and insight, the popular nationally syndicated columnist discusses today's grandparenting challenges while reminding us that one thing is absolutely essential: unconditional love. With ease and commonsense wisdom, her warm and urgent commentaries discuss the special demands of teenage grandchildren, resolving conflicts with grown children, visitation rights, how grandparents can raise grandchildren themselves, and much more.
