Idlewild Jude Sierra

In a last ditch effort to bring the downtown Detroit gastro pub he started with his late husband back to life, Asher Schenck fires everyone and hires a completely new staff. Among them is Tyler Heyward, a 23-year-old recent college graduate in need of funds to pay for med school. As their relationship shifts from business to friendship, Tyler falls for Asher and finds himself caught between the things he thought he wanted and the things he hasn't allowed himself to dream about. Working together, they get to know each other's dreams. Set in the backdrop of Detroit's revival, Idlewild is a story about love and healing.
