Panic was a permanent guest in the Schnitzer's home in the 1920s. They celebrated life, but never celebrated in moderation. Thanks to Gerald's grandmother acting as a traffic cop on an emotional oasis, order was restored. Before her death, Grandma Sarah discovered the calming waters off Coney Island. She never learned to swim, not a stroke, but she could float, sometimes out of sight of land - but that's another story. Join Gerald Schnitzer in the novelized memoir, My Floating Grandmother.
