So Little Time Al Fogel

Al Fogel, author of the groundbreaking "Holding Hand-Helds : Senryu for the Cyber Age" (Amazon paperback and kindle eBook..2nd Printing) showcases his exceptional talent and skills with over 60 memorable mostly senryu and poems that he has chosen--especially for this book.

"These are the ones that hold a special place for me and continue to resonate deeply upon re-readings. Most have appeared in haiku and senryu journals so I'm assuming the editors also found something special in each one and hope you will too.

My first book, "Holding Hand-Helds: Senryu for the Cyber Age" was comprised mostly of humorous cyber-related senryu. This time, I've selected senryu and a few haiku and haibun) that I consider emotionally impactful.

English Language senryu has gone through a transformation and the demarcation between senryu and haiku is becoming thinner and less clearly defined.

it's a haiku
no, it's a senryu, no
a chameleon

--Al Fogel

But whether it's a haiku, senryu or haibun, my rule of thumb was simple: if it's poignant and not intended to be humorous, I have included it

In addition, I have provided a brief commentary on a few selected poems.

Again I want to thank AHA poets who helped workshop some of these into publishable shape. Thanks also to Jim Kacian and THF forum workshop and haijin poets for their continued support.

And a loud shout out to Jane Reichhold who humbled me when she considered my "Basho's frog" haiku among her top 10 favorites" (included in the book with commentary by Jane)
