Desiree, a thirty-five year old African American divorcée and compulsive shopper kindles new romance with a surprising man from her past. Rob, her now-famous former marriage counselor, has changed in the past five years and he's hotter than she remembered. Rob stirs emotions inside Desiree she never thought she'd feel again. Their whirlwind romance is nearly dampened by Desiree's addiction to retail. If there's one person who can break her out of this habit, it's Rob. He understands what makes Desiree tick inside and outside of the bedroom. But Desiree has to be willing to let him in to kick her addiction and let love flourish. An engaged ex-boyfriend from Desiree's past has other plans for her. He'll stop at nothing to keep Desiree addicted to his toxic love by dangling her one weakness in front of her. Desiree must choose between the man she really loves or risk losing herself to the toxic ex who throws cash at all his problems...
