If you're a passionate golfer like me, you've probably seen a lot of videos and read many articles and books on golf in general and putting in particular. Over time, some things have proven to be valid while others can't stand up to the competitive test. I suppose the bottom line is that we do what is comfortable and works for us as long as the results are what we are trying to achieve. Any way you look at it, putting has always been an individual sort of thing.
