What's In A Name: Chasing Love C. K. Powell

Melissa is a successful and alluring actress. Yet, despite her achievements she struggles with her own identity and wonders if there is more to life than what her manager and fans demand of her. The dual personalities that she juggles stand to drive a potentially fatal rift between her and the mysterious man she has unexpectedly fallen in love with. Evan is a skilled "spec-ops" gunfighter with a violent and tragic past. He has traveled the world, hoping to escape the events of his previous life and has decided it's time to return home to San Francisco. By chance the two will meet, sparks will fly and their worlds will change. Their passion will take them on a perilous adventure across the globe. Dangerous assassinations, underground cartels, terrorism and even a daring Coast Guard Rescue will test their relationship as Melissa and Evan fight the darker aspects of modern-day society. Each will help the other discover a deeper meaning in love, but Juliet's quandary will haunt them as both must answer for themselves; What's In A Name....?
