He Wasn't Man Enough For Me Autumn

Take a walk in the shoes of Alani, a brown-skinned heavy duty cutie who thought she had it all. She comes from a stable home and, although she didn't grow up rich, she has never wanted for anything. Alani has a great life with a man she's been with since middle school and a booming business. But when her man can't keep it together, her picture perfect life starts to unravel. She soon realizes that you can't keep a man that doesn't want to be kept.

Khan loves Alani, but the hoes just seem to keep calling him. Every time he tries to do right by her, he fucks up again. But will he fuck up one too many times for her liking? He knows without a shadow of a doubt that with her is where he wants to be. But like the typical man, he tends to think with the wrong head.

Alani has given Khan chance after chance to do right by her, but the dog in him won't let him leave these thots alone. The only thing she wants from him is loyalty, but it seems as if she is asking for too much. She then has to stop and ask herself how much her poor heart can take.

Bam and Alani are best friends and virtually inseparable. Bam has some skeletons in her closet that not even Alani knows about. When getting into a relationship with Khan's cousin and right hand man, Rock, she realizes that she won't be able to keep her demons under wraps for too much longer.

Will Bam push Rock into the arms of another woman? Will Rock be there for Bam when she needs him most? Or will their relationship dry up like a raisin in the sun?

Walk with Alani and Khan in a whirlwind romance as lies are told and loyalty is tested. Can a decade-long relationship weather the storm or will it all fall by the wayside. Read along as Alani learns firsthand the pitfalls of loving a man who isn't man enough!
