ANOTHER TIME - ANOTHER PLACE Ann Karlin

Ann Bell Karlin paints her perspective of life, primarily based on her experiences over the past 40 years living in Israel, with her thought-provoking stories that make up this book, Another Time - Another Place. She offers a unique view on how events of the day affect the lives of ordinary people, including two novellas from the Holocaust era. Ann explains that she "was ecstatic that in 1948 we had our new Jewish State. Had someone told me then, that 20 years later I would be making aliyah to Israel, I might very well have scoffed at the notion as being entirely improbable. Yet, that is what happened, and with this, a new phase in my life began - what can best be described as learning to be a Jew on Jewish soil in the land where it all began."
