Love Poems: A Coffee Table Picture Book August Summers

The perfect gift idea for any woman on anyone's list, for any occasion. This beautiful hardcover coffee table book will transport you from Paris to Rome to the Pacific Northwest, with its exquisite photography and lovely poetry. It is sweet, romantic, and a little sexy, too. A conversation starter for sure! The pictures will remind guests of their travels around the world; and the poetry will inspire discussion, as well. From poems with double meanings, to poetry dedicated to historical figures and ancient myths, there is something for everyone in this book, which belongs on every woman's coffee table.

The poetry within explores love in many different forms, such as the the love between Julius Caesar and Rome; or the love 18th century explorers had for the expedition; and, of course, famous love, like that of Cleopatra and Marc Antony; and Cupid & Psyche—who grace the front cover, because their story is the one that started all fairy tales.

The book also includes short, sweet love poems about young love, forbidden love, reminiscent love, tortured love, lost love, and everlasting love.

This book is sized perfectly to fit any living space; and sits nicely on an end table. When open, it lays flat, easily displaying whichever scene the hostess selects to display on her coffee table to set the mood for the evening. It is an easy gift idea for any occasion, whether it's a housewarming; a birthday; an anniversary; Valentine's Day; Christmas; Hanukkah; a thank you gift; a hostess gift; or a gift for oneself, just to adorn a coffee table.
