Oscar, a little crab, has a problem. Whenever he is excited or nervous, his tongue gets all twisted and he jumbles up his words. When his classmates ridicule his incomprehensible jabbering one day, Oscar runs away--right into the many arms of a kind octopus. The octopus has a plan to help Oscar with a series of challenges and games. Before long, Oscar's proven successes have boosted his confidence and he is able to describe his exciting adventures to his classmates without jumbling a single word! Here is a comical but reassuring story that offers an undersea look at a common childhood problem.
