Broken Hearts of the Bible A king who killed, A woman who loved, A soldier who served. Someone asked me, "What is your book about?" So here are a few quotes taken from the book. This Book is about: Love ... He was as handsome as can be and immediately, her heart was stolen. Bravery ... the others suddenly realize the danger and possible death of the small group. He pulls out his sword ... Kindness ... He turns to his wife ... and with tears continuing to stream down his face says, "We have just been visited by four angels!" Sin ... "The reason I married him was because of his godly virtue and character, and now I am pregnant by adultery and ... and ... deserve to die!" Friendship ... one could see the genuine care and concern in their eyes for their friend. Murder ... David tried his best, but he found no alternative. ... Uriah the Hittite would have to die! Regret ... "Have not I often searched for this in my men; but seldom find it?" ... And when I find it; I destroy it!" Broken Hearts of the Bible shares the story of King David's affair with Bathsheba and how one may end up with a broken heart.  William Hiltz accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior at twenty years of age and has spent the last thirty years serving God's kingdom to help fulfill the Great Commission. He has authored two other books: Deliverance to the Captives and Notes on Life. Entering the ministry at the age of twenty-five with his wife Jayne, they have pastored churches in Maine, New York, Texas and Mexico. They have two grown children and presently make their home in Cleveland, Tennessee.
