Ancient warriors mastered the fighting technologies of their day as well as commanding a broad capability in academic subjects. Many purported warriors of the modern era have conveniently forgotten this fact, or are so detached that they are not aware of this reality. The Golden Rhino Perspective considers the past with an application for your future. If you want to improve yourself operationally, this book will show you a path where you can become a perennial warrior holding diverse skill sets from foreign language competency to shooting and diving.
