I Can Help Gabrielle Pratt

Brittany goes to sleep over at Grandma Val's house and gets to spend time with Aunt April who has cancer. While there she demonstrates her appreciation and love for her aunt. Through simple acts of kindness, she shows great compassion. "I Can Help" is a classic story that God's word can influence a child in creative ways to brighten the life of a sick loved one. A must read! Senior Pastor Ron Shearer, Th.M Blue Hill Gospel Chapel Nassau Bahamas It is with pleasure and satisfaction that I commend and congratulate Gabrielle Pratt for the publication of "I Can Help." Although the book is aimed at younger readers, it has valuable, uplifting life lessons for all ages. It is my hope that it will teach the youth to have faith in God; acceptance, generosity and appreciation of others in the Bahamas and around the world. Vera Chase (President) The Commonwealth Writers of the Bahamas Gabrielle Pratt has spent decades mentoring youth. She has been able to do this through various ministries such as Sunday School, singing, summer camp and vacation bible school at her local assembly. She credits these kinds of activities with having had a profound impact on her during her childhood years and would like to see today's youth similarly benefit. This book "I Can Help" has been written in an effort to teach the importance of showing compassion and appreciation toward an ill person.
