The meeting went very well but Katrina suspects something strange about Dr. Pheko a man she knew little about. She is secretly working on a book about her personal experiences and has been collecting necessary data about the church. Although the church is a sacred place she aimed to prove the false religions, deceptive miracles and how some people are misled and blinded to spiritual truth. When everyone she loves mysteriously disappears and she begins to receive strange calls and threats, she immediately suspects Dr. Pheko. In the mist of mystification she meets a young guy who claims to have the answers to reasons why she is wanted. Katrina trusts no one and is in a dilemma to either fight alone or let help from somewhere else. . . . Why is she followed? What is it so valuable they want from her? Is it the book she is writing or knowledge she has acquired? Find out more in this adventure.
