Petite Suite - Orchestra version: Study score Claude Debussy

Originally composed for piano duet and published in 1889, Debussy's delightful suite was immediately popular. Its widespread popularity resulted in demands for an orchestral setting. The composer, too busy with new works, ultimately assigned the orchestration task to the conductor Henri Büsser. This new study score is an unabridged, digitally restored reissue of the full score first printed in 1908 by A. Durand et Fils, Paris. It is the orchestral version most widely performed and recorded.
