The Emaleen Andarsan Series is a fantasy series for preteens, teens, and young adults that combines a girl's tale of courage and strength with mindfulness concepts and positive messages. The Peerless Seer's Gambit, the second book in the series, continues Emaleen's journey.

Settled in a small mountain town with her aunt and uncle, twelve-year-old Emaleen Barsan used to live a pretty normal life. But one day, she discovered she possessed a set of mystical, otherworldly abilities, and everything began to change.

Now, after a battle against a rival seer named Maerdern, Emaleen has been transported to a secret location--an island, part of New York's Thousand Islands, which is invisible to the naked eye. There, she works on completing her magical training as she discovers new ways to harness and grow her powerful abilities.

For now, she is hidden away from the evil Maerdern, but that safety can't last forever. As the vengeful seer uses every resource at his disposal to track her down, Emaleen must prepare to face off against him once again.

In the action-packed second installment of the Emaleen Andarsan series, join Emaleen once again as she uncovers new and exciting secrets, experiences growth toward her potential as both a seer and a young woman, and discovers just how far the people who love her will go to protect her.
