Alex Smith had always been a romantic, but over time it took a toll on his heart. He tried to move on, but time after time each of his relationships had failed. He finally decided that he needed a break from his love life and threw his focus into his career and the opening of his new art gallery. His assistant, Becca had brought some big names from the art world to his gallery but surprised him when she landed one of the biggest names, Eve Matthews. The moment Alex saw Eve; he was taken by her long legs and sharp blue eyes. He immediately wanted to know more about her but attempted to keep his promise to himself that he would take a break from that part of his life. But Eve's beauty and self-confidence was something he greatly craved in a woman. When one disaster after another pushed Alex and Eve closer together, he couldn't ignore his feelings for her anymore. Could he finally push his ex-girlfriend, Emily out of his heart and make room for someone new? True Love is book #4 of the "Now & Forever" Series. Make sure to check out: First Love (Book #1) Everlasting Love (Book #2) Forever Love (Book #3)
