We Met The Space People Betty Mitchell, Helen Mitchell

Helen and Betty Mitchell were approached by humanoid space aliens at a coffee shop in St. Louis, Missouri in the late 1950s. Taught how to communicate with the Space People from Mars and Venus, they receive messages from their new friends. Finally they are taken on a space ship voyage. This is the account of their experiences and the messages they were given by the aliens: abolish nuclear weapons, create education television programming and become vegetarians or face extinction.
