Workable Pension Systems P. Desmond Brunton, Pietro Masci

Virtually all nations can expect to have a significant population of retired persons who will make a claim on the society's economic resources. This volume is geared to helping devise workable and efficient pension systems for the nations of the Caribbean. The requirements for reform are extremely complex and encompass political, policy, and technical issues. Workable Pension Systems: Reforms in the Caribbean offers specific discussions of instruments, programs, and experiences in various Latin American and Caribbean nations, and potential solutions that draw on the collective expertise and talent in the region.
