Kaleb Comeaux is a Louisiana Cajun with a brilliant mind for science. His work inserting genes from one species into another has led to one of the most important and valuable scientific discoveries in history. When his discovery is put on the auction block by the owner of Gentek, Doc, he refuses to let his work be responsible for millions of deaths. Kaleb is drawn into a game of life, death and deception where the grand prize are his memories stolen by Gentek. Kaleb's search for answers and justice leads him across two continents. This fast paced adventure will hold the reader spellbound. The line between science fiction and science fact is difficult to find as the story unfolds in a world that few see but may really exist.
