Start to Bead (Start to series) Jill Thomas

Start to Bead is aimed at 10-14 year olds who would love to be creative with beads. The patterns and projects included in the book are ideal for beginners, they are highly achievable using beads, threads and a few simple tools that are readily available through your favourite bead store. Once you have made a few projects from this book you will have learnt some basic beading techniques and will be able to create your own designs. Simple beading techniques are explained using clear instructions and step by step photographs, and only a few tools are needed to make the projects.
