The Child Who Saved Our World Gregory Iocco

It was an audacious claim, seemingly impossible to fulfill, and all the host of evil was massed against it. Yet the prophecy of the child who would save the world endured from age to age; and although demons, tyrants, and armies fought with desperate determination against the decree of Heaven, no creature could smother the hope which the child promised to all people, nor prevent him from appearing upon earth like the dawning sun. The Child Who Saved Our World is a sweeping account of this true story. Complete with beautiful illustrations by the author, and a straightforward, fast-paced narrative, it is sure to delight adults and children alike.
