Lost Was the Key Leah A. Haley

Lost Was the Key is a nonfiction, autobiographical account of a CPA, wife, and mother whose middle-class, Southern-Baptist world was shattered by unwanted contact with extraterrestrials. When Leah Haley began to investigate the subject of "alien" contact, agencies of the U.S. government and/or military became so interested in her that they were willing to risk charges of burglary, kidnapping, and torture to learn what she knew and to silence her.
