Reflections: (a place called Ponderosa) Stephanie Maher

...stephanie maher walks us through metaphysical reflections and an historical journey around the innovative making of life, love, art, and dance, for which Ponderosa has been accorded its much due international applause...

this book, widely illustrated with multi-layered photos by sandra weiser, sketches in some of the history of Ponderosa, but more importantly takes the reader through a number of visionary meditations around art and art-making, eco-art and the environment, collective decision-making and behavior, as well as sustainability, the german countryside, and more...

stephanie's many students and followers will love the journey...newcomers to her world will be bewitched by its spontaneous magic and the provocative quality of her vision...
