Spiritual Problems of Committed Christians Steve Wilkes

From Jerry Rankin, President Emeritus of the International Mission Board: "Steve Wilkes has brought to light a dilemma that is all too common and seldom discussed. In SPIRITUAL PROBLEMS OF COMMITTED CHRISTIANS Wilkes discusses with candor the issues of discouragement, doubt, lust, fear and others that badger the most dedicated follower of Christ. Saturated with Scripture and filled with candid personal illustrations with which the reader will readily identify, the book goes on to offer solutions to overcoming these problems and claiming the victory we have been given in Christ." From Elmer Towns, co-founder of Liberty University: "No matter how spiritual you become, you will be attacked by temptation. And remember, Satan knows your weaknesses and will try to get to you anyway he can. Steve Wilkes has written a book on the temptations that beset the committed Christian; but he does not stop there, he shows how to overcome temptations, to keep ones commitment strong, and to be victorious over sin. May you become more committed to Jesus Christ as a result of reading this book, and may you accomplish more in servicing Christ." Author Steve Wilkes is a professor in the Department of Missions at Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary and is the Editor of the "Journal of Evangelism and Missions." He is also President of World-Wide Church Planters, a group that helps to start churches in responsive areas of the world. He has served in the ministry for over 39 years and has spent 26 years teaching Baptist ministers.
